BIO

Crystal Reynolds was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The oldest of six siblings at an early age, Crystal had a strong desire to help others. At the age of thirteen, Crystal began working in a daycare facility with toddlers, and by; fourteen transitioned to working at the YWCA summer and after-school program mentoring youth.

At the age of seventeen, Crystal moved to Georgia, where she continued working in a privately owned after-school program. After graduating, Crystal obtained an associate's degree in Business Software Technology and began work in the Healthcare Industry.

Crystal is married to her high school sweetheart and has two children. As her children were growing up, Crystal served on multiple PTA boards as President, Vice-President, and Secretary for over ten years. She also served as a team mom, room parent, and on the school parent advisory council. Crystal was determined to get back to her passion full-time, so she went back to college to pursue her career as an Educator. In 2014 Crystal was diagnosed with Breast Cancer, which put a pause on her plans. After months of treatment in 2015, Crystal continued her plans and Graduated from Georgia Gwinnett College in 2016 with a Bachelor in Elementary Education and endorsements in Reading and ESOL. She was immediately hired at Partee Elementary School and served as a 4th Grade teacher. Crystal is a lifelong learner and continued her education by obtaining her Gifted Endorsement in 2019 and her Masters in Education in 2020. She currently serves as 4th-grades chairperson and director of Ladies of Legacy.
